AGM Voter Turnout by Society in %

The chart and table show the comparative results of the AGM votes held between March and August 2017. Figures recorded are for the percentage of qualified members who chose to vote at each society.

Not all members/customers of building societies who hold qualifying accounts will have the right to vote e.g. account holders aged under 18, the second named member on joint policies.

Average voter turnout in 2017 is 10.6% with most societies, but not all, recording a small decline on turnout compared to 2016 results.

There is an ongoing trend to indicate that the societies which hold their AGMs in the earlier months of the research period see a higher voter turnout.
